WHAT WE'RE GOLFING FOR PEMHS Suicide Prevention:

PEMHS stands at the forefront of suicide prevention efforts, deeply committed to safeguarding individuals in crisis. Notably, we operate our dedicated suicide prevention hotline, offering vital support to those grappling with overwhelming emotions. Additionally, as a trusted backup for the nationwide 988 service, we ensure seamless assistance reaches those in need, augmenting our reach and impact.

Beyond this, our involvement extends to addressing diverse mental health concerns through initiatives like YouGood calls, providing a listening ear and guidance to individuals navigating challenging times.

Serving as the primary suicide hotline for Pinellas County underscores our integral role in the local community, where we handle approximately 3000 calls monthly. These calls span from urgent suicide intervention to providing empathetic support for individuals feeling emotionally burdened, highlighting our unwavering commitment to mental wellness and crisis intervention.
